BRASHBEAR

The Brashbear family were French Huguenots, who came to the New World before 1635, landing in Virginia. In 1683, they removed to Maryland. No group of people, perhaps, have stood more heroically or more gallantly, nor fought more bravely for the principles of Democracy than the Huguenots.

HALSEY

John Halsey of England was the father of William Halsey whose will was proved on July 2, 1546. In his will Alice, his wife is mentioned. They had a son, William Halsey. He married Anne on December 3, 1559. According to a statement on page 11 of "Thomas Halsey and His Descendants in America", William Halsey was mentioned in the will of his father, William Halsey, and in the will of his mother, who was Alice Halsey. William was the second son of William and Alice. He died on May 16, 1596 and was buried at "Great Gaddesden", the ancestral home of this Halsey family.

Robert Halsey, third son of William and Anne Halsey, was the father of Thomas Halsey, who was the first of the family to come to America. Robert Halsey married Dorothy Downes, daughter of William Downes, of Linsdale Buckinghamshire, England. Robert Halsey was buried at "Great Gaddesden" on October 12, 1618 and Dorothy Downes Halsey was buried there on September 23, 1620.

Thomas Halsey was born 1591, and was the fourth son of Robert and Dorothy Downes Halsey. He married Thoebe, a sister of Richard Barrett, an early settler of Southampton Long Island. The family genealogy gives the birth of Thos. Halsey as 1-2-1592 and the date of the coming to the New World to Lynn, Massachusetts as 1637, and lists him as one of the founders of Southampton in 1640, the first settlement in New York. His wife was murdered by two Pequot Indians in 1649. Thomas Halsey died in 1679 and his grave is among the twenty founders of Southampton which are kept in good condition by the Colonial Society of Southampton. Children of Thomas and Phoebe Barrett Halsey were:-

2. Isaac, b. 1628-9; d. 1725. A broken stone in the graveyard at Southampton says "Isaac Halsey d. Jan. 31, 1725, his wife Mary".

3. Daniel Halsey, b. 1630-33 m. Jemima, d. 1682

4. Elizabeth Halsey married Richard, son of Edward Howell.

Isaac, the second son of Thomas and Phoebe Halsey & his wife Mary are the ancestors of Admiral William Halsey. This fact has been published in several periodicals. Fear Brewster, daughter of Alder William Brewster married Isaac Allerton, a Mayflower Pilgrim, Assistant Governor of Plymouth Colony and later prominent N.Y. merchant. Their son, Isaac Allerton, moved to Virginia, where Sarah Allerton, his daughter, married Hancock Lee. In 1721, he built "Bloom-bury", the first frame house in rolling Orange County, Va. The daughter of this James Taylor II, married Ambrose Madison and his son, Zachary Taylor married Elizabeth Lee. Two of James Taylor's great-grandsons became President of the United States. James Taylor was one of the wealthiest members of the landed gentry of Virginia.

Augustine (Austin) Swinney was born in Virginia and was the father of two sons - Robert and Augustine. Robert Swinney was the father of Augustine of Va., and both sons and the families went to Shelby County, Ky.

Jessie Taggart (later Jessie Taggart Black) did many years of research on this Swinney family. She was a descendant of Augustine Swinney of Virginia. After her death, Fred Swinney of Minot North Dakota received the family data. The following records are from an old Bible, from memory of a living descendant and from Jessie Black's data.

The Ownby and Swinney families were in 1828 living in the area of Ralls County, which became Monroe, in Missouri. They took out land near Middlegrove, Mo.

Robert Swinney, the eldest son of Augustine married in Kentucky and had:- Preston, Joel, Kitty Burton and a daughter, who married Mr. Querry, a son Henry, who married Nancy but had no children.

Preston Swinney, son of Robert, was born 1811. On 9-29-1835, he married Rebina Benchly Hull, daughter of John Chauncey Hull and Margaret Knoch Hull. The date is in an old Bible that belonged to Margaret Hull and the license is on record in Paris, Monroe County, Missouri. Children of Preston and Rebina Benchly Hull Swinney were:-

HARGIS

The following record of the Hargis family was compiled by Mrs H.L. Martin, Ozark Alabama, who for many years searched for Hargis data, and from efforts of this compiler:-

The first Hargis to America seems to have been George who was transported to Virginia, in 1642 by Thomas Benton .

In 1668, Thomas Hargis and William Hargis, sons of the immigrant George patented land in Charles County, Maryland, near Zachiah Swamp. Thomas Hargis died in Charles County, Maryland and left four sons:- Thomas, William, Francis and Abraham.

Abraham Hargis was born about 1710 and lived in Prince George County and then in Charles County, Maryland. In about the year 1750, he moved to Fairfax County, Virginia . In about 1765 he went to North Carolina. We have records of five of his sons - Shadroch, b. 1740; Thomas, b. 1752; William, b. 1760; Richard, b ; Abraham. All served in the Revolution, excepting Richard, whose service, as yet, has not been found.

William Asa Hargis, brother of Thomas, was born England and as stated patented land in Charles County, Maryland. His land patent shows that he was the older of these two Hargis brothers. It appears that it was necessary for a man to have been over twenty-one to have bought and to have sold land/ It seems certain that William Asa Hargis was past twenty-one in 1668/ The brother, being younger, and since he, too, was of necessity twenty-one, it would seem evident that William Asa Hargis, in 1668, would have been a year or more over twenty-one. He died in 1686, 20 years after he took out land in Charles County, Maryland. The land was called " Hargis Hope ". The will of William Asa Hargis mentions his wife, Ann, their three sons, the eldest of whom was John Draper Hargis. The wife of William Asa Hargis was Ann Elizabeth Draper. The will does mention that the children are minors and records there show that Ann Hargis sold her land and later went to Virginia with her parents.

John Draper Hargis lived for a while in Accomac County, Virginia and while living there, married Miss Fountain, of King William County, Virginia, on the James River. The Fountain home was " Fountain Blue ". They were French Huguenots. John Draper Hargis died in 1730, Westmorland County, Virginia and his will is recorded there November 25, 1730. The community was called Oldham and their children were born in Oldham. The will lists their children:- John; Maryl Milvelte.

John Hargis, the only son of John Draper Hargis married Grace Boswell. They had only one child, John, who married Elizabeth Whitesides of Oldham, Westmorland Co., Virginia.

One of the children of John and Elizabeth Whiteside Hargis was William Hargis. In 1768, John and his family moved from Westmorland County but William did not remove with his parents. He went with his parents-in-law, the William Dopson family to Hampshire County, Virginia(now West Virginia) The will of William Dopson proved 10-15-1798, in Hampshire County mentions his wife, a daughter, who was single named Margaret Dopson, one daughter, the wife of William Hargis and a grandson, William Hargis, grandsons Nathaniel, Thomas and William Parker, who were orphans. William Hargis, his family, his nephews, Nathaniel, Thomas and William Parker and all of the deceased William Dopson's family moved to Hardin County, Kentucky, early in the 1790's. These persons are found on records in Hardin County, where the grandson of William Dopson, William Hargis married Elizabeth Reed, 1-21-1799. William Hargis, who had married the daughter of William Dopson, died in 1819 in Christian County, Kentucky, where the family then resided. Here 4-4-1812 a brother, Isaac Dopson Hargis married Malinda Reed. She preceded him in death many years.

William Hargis was a soldier in the Revolution and Nellie Mae Wood Hull with National Number 400507 is a member of D.A.R. through her descent from him.

William and Elizabeth Reed Hargis, with other families from Kentucky, are found in Howard County, Missouri in that early settlement. The records in Fayette, indicate that he owned considerable property. Some of the children of William and Elizabeth Reed Hargis were: Caleb, b. 1810, Ky. d. Howard Co., Mo; m. Elizabeth and had issue:-

- a. Francis Marion Hargis, b. 1836

gis, of R.R. near Fayette, who descends from Caleb, through James Harrison Hargis.

HULL

There are numerous reference books containing records of this Hull family. There is a genealogy "The Hull Family in America" by Col. Weygant and published by The Hull Family Association.

George Hull and his brother, the Reverend Joseph Hull were early settlers of the New World. They were first by the name to come to America and were sons of Thomas and Joane Peson Hull, of Somersetshire, England. George was about five years older than Joseph and he came about five years earlier to America, in 1630.

George Hull was born in 1590 and on August 17, 1614, as shown by the original records of the parish of that ancient Church at the village of Crewkerne, he was married to Thomazen (Thomsens) Michell, daughter of Robert Michell, a well-to-do yeoman, in the adjoining shire of Dorset, about six miles of Crewkerne, at or near the ancestral home of the Hull family.

William and Joseph Hull, the oldest and the youngest brothers of George Hull, were graduates of St. Mary's Hall, Oxford and were ministers of the Church of England. William, who was Vicar of Colyton, in Devonshire died childless, leaving a will in which he mentions brothers, George, John and Joseph, also Marie (Mary) daughter of his brother, George.

George Hull was about 40 years of age, when on March 30th, 1629/30, he sailed from England, with a noted company of adventurers, which included Ludlow, Mason, Underhill, Southcote, Maverick and Warham, all of whom became men of marked prominence. Cotton Mather distinguishes both George and Joseph Hull with places in a book of those who contributed in an important manner to the early history of our country. In the History by Mr. Trumble, the Hull name is grouped with those names which are worthy of perpetuation. Mr Styles in his "History of Windsor" says that George Hull was a citizen of great worth and distinction. George Hull died in 1659. Thomasene Hull, his wife, preceded him in death.

The following record and record of many of other descendants of George and Joseph Hull may be found in "The Hull Family in America", by Col. Weygant, which was published by "The Hull Family Association". The book is very difficult to purchase but is in numerous libraries.

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm blanket I had been sitting under. I looked up at the sky, which was a pale, hazy blue. The air was crisp and clean, a welcome change from the stuffy atmosphere of the car. I took a deep breath, feeling the cool air fill my lungs. The sun was just beginning to rise, casting a soft, golden glow over the landscape. The trees were still, their branches bare and reaching out towards the sky. The ground was covered in a thin layer of snow, which glistened in the morning light. I walked slowly, my boots crunching against the snow. The silence was peaceful, a rare moment of quiet in a busy world. I felt a sense of calm, a sense of being in the right place at the right time. The world was beautiful, and I was grateful to be here.
